

HP 2310ti 58,4 cm (23") Widescreen LCD

Touchscreen Monitor

Immerse yourself in touch technology

HP introduces a new business Touchscreen Series monitor that lets you immerse yourself in the future of touch without the submerging your business budget.

Take control of your experience

Handle your workload a whole new way with the HP 2310ti multi-touch monitor. This Microsoft® Windows® 7 certified monitor provides an intuitive and instinctive way to interact with the multi-touch capabilities within Win® 7, helping you improve the speed and efficiency of your work performance. Replace your mouse and take control of your productivity by using your fingertips to perform multi-touch gestures such as:

- Flick or scroll through long documents or web pages with speed
- Scroll side to side for wide documents by using two fingers
- Tap, grab, drag, select and move objects around on a page like a mouse
- Right click using a second finger or press and hold with one finger to open documents
- Pinch fingers or spread them apart to rotate maps or make photos larger or smaller

Modern technology that performs

The HP 2310ti incorporates modern technology and on-screen performance that will help bring life to your work with features such as:

- Optical touch panel technology recognizes multiple inputs
- Crisp, full HD resolution ¹ (1920 x 1080) brings images to life
- A BrightView panel displays rich on-screen imagery
- 40,000:1 DCR provides shading effects for deeper blacks, brighter whites and subtle colors
- A 16:9 aspect ratio helps you see more on the screen with less scrolling

- Fast 3 ms response time helps keep details in focus ²

- 55 degrees of tilt adjustment enables comfortable touchscreen use and multiple user interactivity

- Wide 160 degree horizontal viewing angles makes it easy for others to see your work without reducing image quality or contrast

- Integrated HP Power Sound speakers pump solid bass and keep space-constrained desktops clear

- Inputs include a VGA and an HDCP compliant DVI for hassle-free plug and play connectivity

Support your can count on

The 2310ti monitor has a one year limited warranty, backed by service and support
