WEB DESCRIPTION

Universal case for tablet 9" to 10" in eco-leather. X-Fit, the new internal system in silicone designed by Tucano, suits the varying dimensions of your device. The fold in the back of the case easily transforms Vento into a handy-stand to tilt your tablet. This makes it easier to view web content, videos, photos, watch films and write. A small suction cup inside the case ensures that the front cover securely closes over the top of the tablet's display screen.

FEATURES

Material:

- Front flap for full device protection
- Anti shock padding
- X-Fit, an interior anti-slip universal system that consists of easy-fitting silicone rubber elastic straps that hook up the tablet to the case
- One small suction cup fix the front flap to your tablet screen
- Built-in back cover converts into a practical stand with different positions
- Ultra-slim design
