Connecting to the Internet

You need a contract with an Internet Service Provider (ISP) and some hardware in order to connect to the Internet. ISPs and the services they offer vary by country. Contact your ISP for services available in your country. Your computer supports wireless (selected models only) or wired networks that connect your computer to other devices.

Wired network connection

For wired networks, connect one end of an Ethernet cable (purchased separately) to the Ethernet connector on your computer, and then connect the other end to the network router or broadband modem. Consult your ISP for detailed setup instructions.

NOTE: Broadband modem and router installation procedures vary depending on the manufacturer. Follow the manufacturer's instructions.

Wireless network connection

For wireless networks, you can use the built-in Wi-Fi antenna to access your wireless home network.

To connect your computer to the wireless network:

Click or tap the network icon on the taskbar, then select the name of your router. Click or tap Connect, then follow the steps on the screen.

Test the wireless network by opening your Web browser and accessing any Web site.

Instructions for installing Windows® 10

For models with DOS, the BIOS mode must be changed before installing Windows 10. Please see the instructions below:

1. Turn on your computer, and then press F1 repeatedly to start the "Lenovo BIOS Setup Utility" program.
2. Use the Right Arrow to choose the EXIT Tab.
3. Use the Down Arrow to select OS Optimized Default, and then press Enter to change the BIOS mode. Use the Down Arrow to select "Enabled" to enable UEFI, and then press Enter to confirm the change.
4. Press F10 to save the change and exit the program.

Windows help system

The Windows help system provides you with detailed information about using the Windows operating system.

To access the Windows help system, do the following:
Open the Start menu and then click or tap Get Started to get more details. You can also enter Get Started or what you're looking for in the search box on the taskbar. You'll get suggestions and answers to your questions about Windows and the best search results available from your PC and the Internet.

To perform system recovery after a serious error in Windows 10, click or tap the Start button and select Settings → Update & security → Recovery. Then, follow the instructions on the screen for system recovery.

ATTENTION: The Windows operating system is provided by Microsoft Corporation. Please use it in accordance with the END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA) between you and Microsoft. For any question related to the operating system, please contact Microsoft directly.
