INSTALLATION

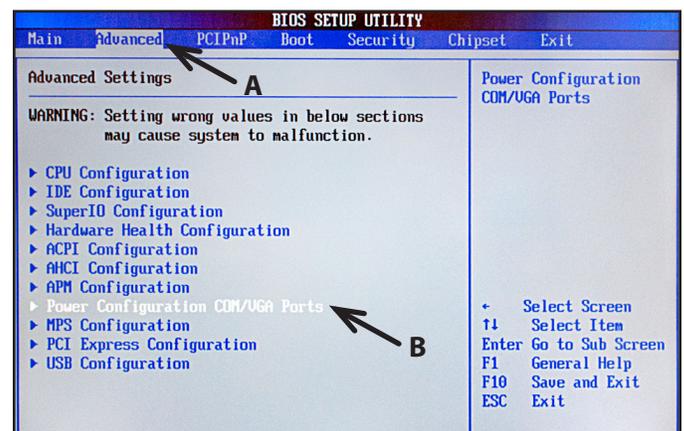

Installation varies depending on which model you will mount the rear display to. See the model-specific instructions below and proceed as indicated.

Steps Required for Specific Models

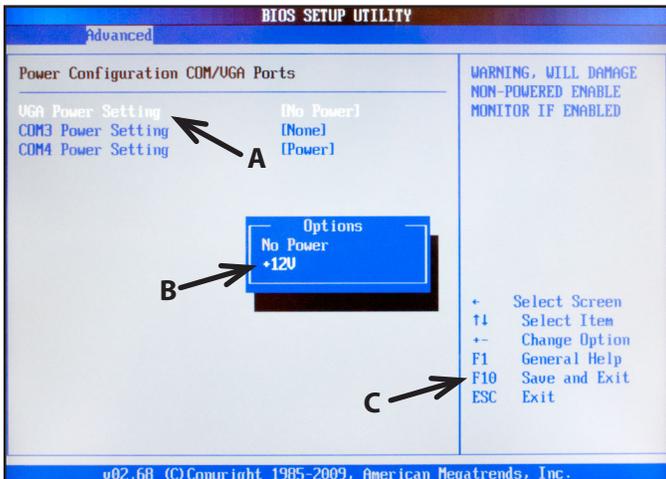

To turn the powered VGA output ON (EVO-TP4 series only, excluding EVO-TP4A-A):

1. Turn the system OFF. Note: If a USB keyboard is not currently connected to the system, install one now.
2. Turn the system ON while holding the Delete key to enter the BIOS.
3. Select the "Advanced" tab (A), then "Power Configuration COM/VGA Ports" (B).

Configuring VGA Port

- From the "Power Configuration COM/VGA Ports" menu, select "VGA Power Setting" (A), then choose "+12V" (B).

Turning Power ON

- Save and Exit from BIOS (C) by pressing F10, allow the system to start, then turn it OFF.

To install the rear display (all models):

- Make sure the system is OFF.
- Disconnect the system from power.
- Loosen the thumb screw shown below, then carefully remove the display from the base by sliding it upward. Set the display aside.

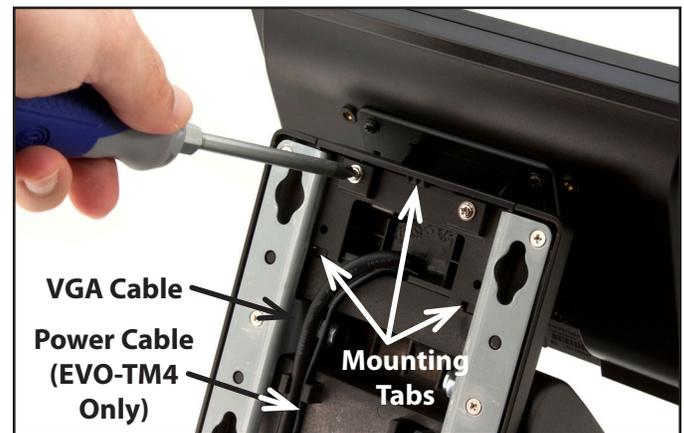

Main Display Removal

- Remove the rear mount cover shown below by unthreading the two flange screws that secure it.

Rear Mount Cover Removal

- Thread the VGA cable through the hole in the stand (and power cord for EVO-TM4 installation only), then attach the rear display to the stand, making sure all three tabs engage with the slots in the base. Secure the display using the screws removed in Step 9.

Rear Display Installation

- Replace the main display in the reverse order from which it was removed, making sure to secure it with the thumb screw.

- EVO-TP4: Connect the VGA cable from the VGA-Out port on the main display to the VGA port on the rear display

EVO-TM4: Connect the VGA cable from the VGA-Out port on the POS computer to the VGA port on the rear display and connect the power cord from the power supply to the 12V receptacle on the rear display).

Reconnect any other cords that were removed during setup.

- Connect the system to power, then turn it ON.
